CTC Honors members with its 2010 Awards...

Special recognition was given to Ralph Shape for his outstanding contributions to the club & was awarded the Outstanding Member of the Year. The 2010 Treasure Hunter of the Year was won by Ron Aldridge as well as The Best Find of 2010 & the Oldest Find in Washington State & in recognition he was awarded two Silver Eagles.

.....February's Theme of the Month was "pipes." Jon Gentry & Matt Mechler elaborated on their collections of clay pipes, most of were found at various construction sites in the old part of Tacoma and farms in Eastern Washington. A clay pipe cost 50¢ in the 1860's. Stan A. discussed his colorful & unique hair beret collection.

.....Kevin Konen won $20.00 in the Jug of Hope Contest! The Silver Dollar raffle was won by Garry Robbins. AOK Award was won by Ken Cochran who took Jack Davis scooping. Last month's AOK was actually won by Iggy Lazana (not Mark J.) for donating a detector to a youth program.

Sympathetic Wishes From CTC....Susan Graves step dad has passed away and Jack Davis is recovering from a mild heart attack.
